A Disciples of Christ Congregation

Today's anthem lyrics were written by Englishman Henry W. Baker, a vicar and editor-in-chief of an Anglican hymnal in the late 1800s. This historic hymnal sold 60 million copies.

The Sermon is a message based on a scripture reading that proclaims the good news of Jesus Christ.

If you have made the decision to proclaim Jesus as Christ and would like to become part of the family of faith at University Christian Church, we invite you to come forward during the Hymn of Discipleship to be greeted by our ministers.

(11:00am) Anthem | O Praise Ye the Lord • C. Hubert H. Parry
Chancel Choir—Dr. Todd Prickett, conductor
O praise ye the Lord, praise him in the height; rejoice in God's word, ye angels of light! Ye heavens, adore the Creator of life, who brings us the victory o'er death sin and strife. O praise ye the Lord, praise God upon earth in tuneful accord, ye heirs of new birth; Praise God who has brought us such grace from above, and laud the Almighty in anthems of love. O praise ye the Lord! Thanksgiving and song to God be outpoured all ages along; For love in creation, for heaven restored, for grace of salvation, o praise ye the Lord. Amen.

Gloria Patri (Latin for “Glory be to the Father”) is an ancient prayer of praise. Early Christians usually referred to God in masculine terms. You might sing “Mother” or “Creator” instead of “Father,” depending on how you think about God.

The Lord’s Prayer is a prayer that Jesus taught his disciples. We say this prayer together each week. It asks God to help us be generous, thankful, and humble.

Doxology is Greek for “words of glory.” We use this ancient form of praise to thank God as the offering is brought forward with the bread and juice for the Lord’s Supper.

The Lord’s Supper (also called Communion) is a celebration of Christ’s love for the world and a remembrance of his death and resurrection. We share this meal each week and everyone is welcome to participate.

The Passing of the Peace is one of the most ancient worship responses. Having received Christ’s peace, we pass it on.

You can find today’s scripture reading on pages 11-12 of the New Testament in your pew Bible.
