A Disciples of Christ Congregation

On this All Saints Sunday, we lovingly remember those who have died this last year. With gratitude, we recall their influence on us and on this community of faith. As our Chancel Choir offers anthems of honor and remembrance, ushers will invite you to light candles in memory of the loved ones you hold in your heart.

University Christian Church is a warm community that welcomes everyone to the table. If you proclaim Jesus as the Christ and would like to partner with us on your journey of faith, we invite you to speak to a minister after worship.

Invitation to Remembrance

All Saints Remembrance

Set Me as a Seal • Richard Nance
Set me as a seal upon your heart, as a seal upon your arm;
For love is strong as death.
Many waters cannot quench love, neither can floods drown it.

Be Still, My Soul • arr. Mack Wilberg
Be still, my soul: for God is on your side.
Bear patiently the cross of grief or pain.
Trust in your God, your savior and your guide;
Who through all changes faithful will remain.
Be still, my soul; your best, your heavenly friend
Through thorny ways leads to a peaceful end.

Be still, my soul: for God will undertake
To guide the future surely as the past.
Your hope, your confidence let nothing shake;
All now mysterious shall be bright at last.
Be still, my soul: the waves and winds still know
The voice that calmed them in this world below.

Be still, my soul: the hour is hastening on
When we shall be with God forevermore,
When disappointment, grief, and fear are gone,
Sorrow forgot, love’s purest joys restored.
Be still, my soul: when change and tears are past.
All safe and blessed we shall meet at last.

In Remembrance • Jeffery Ames
Lux aeterna, luceat eis Domine. (May light eternal shine upon them, O Lord.)
Turn to me and be gracious, for my heart is in distress.
Oh God, my God, why hast Thou forsaken me?
My tears linger at night, but joy comes in the morning light.
Lord, in Your infinite mercy, grant them rest. Rest forevermore.

*Living the good news of Jesus Christ
with open minds and loving hearts*

The information in these margins will guide you through worship. If you have any questions, please ask a greeter, usher or minister.

Red text is read by the congregation. Asterisks (*) indicate times when you are invited to stand. Feel free to remain seated if need be.

In our worship, any gender-specific language is meant to apply to all genders, and all references to God are intended to encompass the full character and nature of God. In the Gloria Patri, for instance, you might sing “Mother” or “Creator” instead of “Father”, depending on how you think about God.

The Lord’s Prayer is a prayer that Jesus taught his disciples. It asks God to help us be generous, thankful, and humble. We say this prayer together each week at the end of the Pastoral Prayer.

The Sharing of the Bread and the Cup
Andante (from Italian Concerto, BWV 971) • J.S. Bach
Kate Stevens, piano

You can find today’s scripture reading on page 226 of the New Testament in your pew Bible.

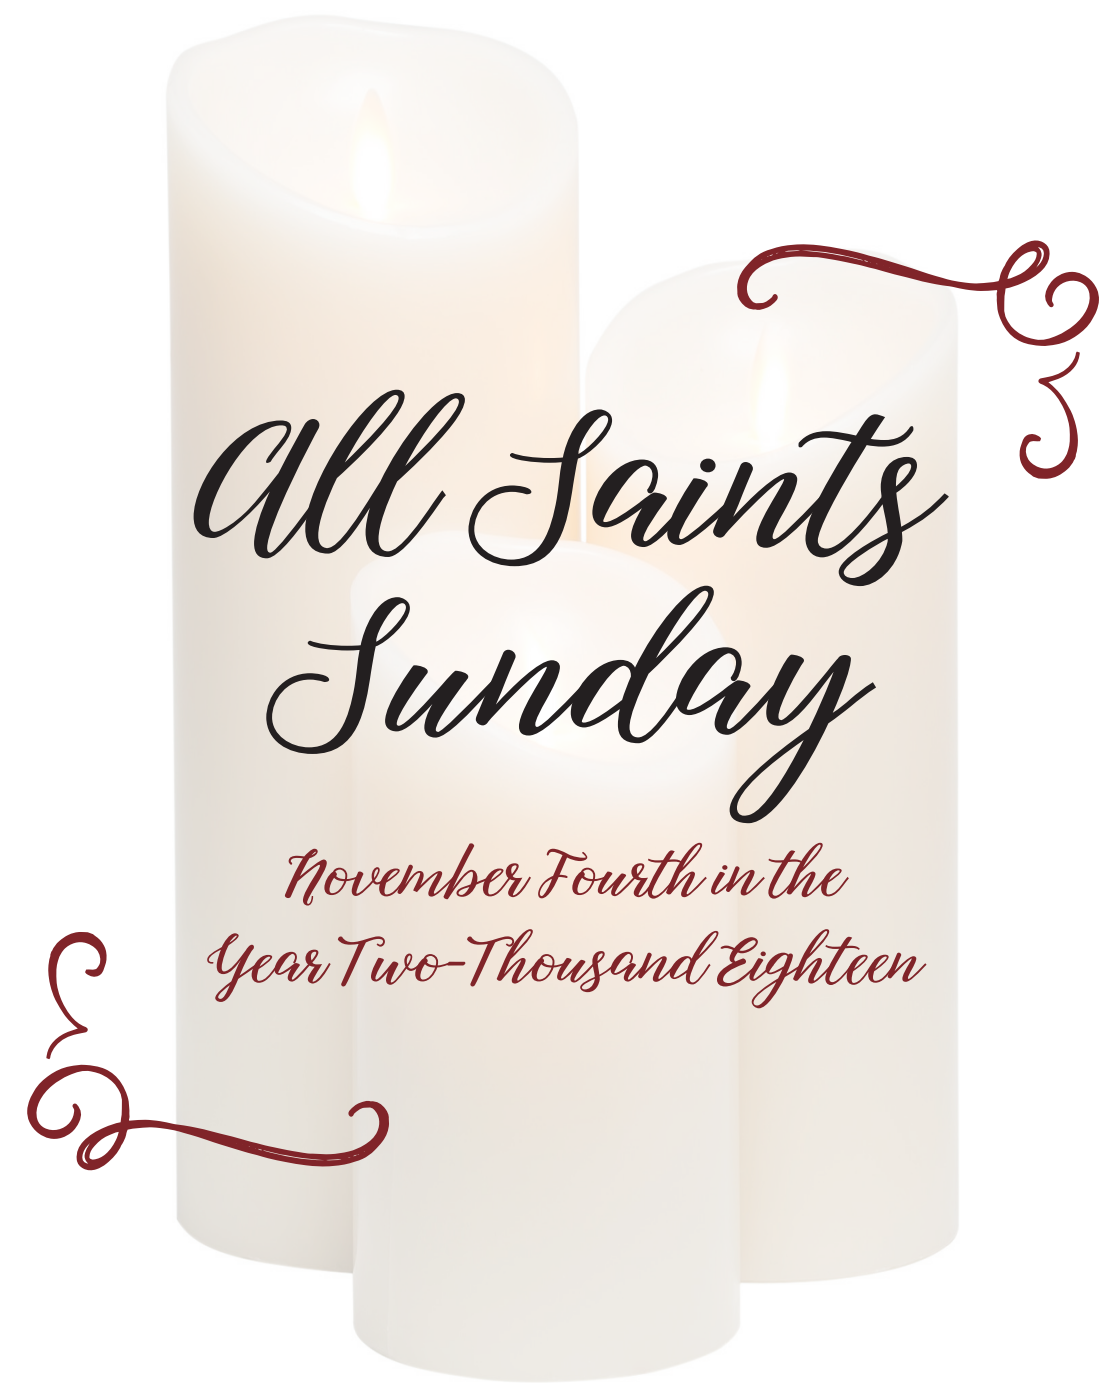

The Sermon is a message based on scripture that proclaims God’s love and helps to strengthen faith within the gathered community.

The Passing of the Peace is one of the most ancient worship responses. Having received Christ’s peace, we pass it on.

Faithful giving supports the ministries of our church and helps us develop generosity as a spiritual practice.

Doxology is Greek for “words of glory.” We use this ancient form of praise to thank God as the offering is brought forward with the bread and juice for the Lord’s Supper.

The Lord’s Supper (also called communion) is a celebration of Christ’s love for the world. We welcome everyone to participate in sharing this meal each week. Our communion bread is free of gluten, wheat, dairy, yeast, eggs, soy, nuts, and corn and we also use alcohol-free grape juice.
